About UNIQUE

UNIQUE is an annual art and literary magazine published by ARISE. It displays the creative work of people with disabilities living in Central New York. UNIQUE represents the power of art to express, educate, and inspire. ARISE distributes UNIQUE throughout Central New York. UNIQUE Magazine is made possible by the New York State Council on the Arts with the support of Governor Andrew M. Cuomo and the New York State Legislature.

Goals of UNIQUE

UNIQUE has four main goals:

1. To publish deserving art and literature in recognition of its intrinsic artistic and literary value;
2. To share the artistic visions and voices of people with disabilities with the public, thus increasing awareness of the capabilities of people with disabilities;
3. To initiate conversation around art and literature that inspires, educates, and enlightens; and
4. To share the experiences of people who have disabilities and their joy with accomplishing freedom, success, and independence.

About ARISE

Founded in 1979, ARISE began as one of New York State's eight original Independent Living Centers with the mission to work with people of all abilities to create a fair and just community in which everyone can fully participate. The agency started with a small staff dedicated to the idea – which was revolutionary at the time – that people with disabilities should have equal rights. Today, ARISE employs around 600 people and offers more than 50 programs. The agency is cross-disability and serves 7,000 individuals each year, including 1,200 individuals through its Mental Health Clinic. The goal of ARISE is to offer individuals with disabilities a platform to advocate and achieve systems change, independence, and choice.

Artists may submit only one original creative piece for consideration.

When is the deadline for submissions?

The deadline for submissions is April 26, 2019.

We are sorry, but all work must be original. Collaborations are acceptable, but please list all artists on the submission and consent forms.
