About UNIQUE

UNIQUE is an art and literary magazine published by ARISE each year. It displays the creative work of people with disabilities living in Central New York. UNIQUE represents the power of art to express, educate, and inspire. ARISE distributes the UNIQUE magazine throughout Central New York and displays the art exhibit at different community locations.

UNIQUE has four main goals:

1. To publish deserving art and literature in recognition of its intrinsic artistic and literary value;
2. To share the artistic visions and voices of people with disabilities with the public, thus increasing awareness of the capabilities of people with disabilities.
3. To initiate conversation around art and literature that inspires, educates, and enlightens; and
4. To share the experiences of people who have disabilities and their joy with accomplishing freedom, success, and independence.

About ARISE

Founded in 1979, ARISE began as one of New York State's eight original Independent Living Centers with the mission to work with people of all abilities to create a fair and just community in which everyone can fully participate. The agency started with the idea – which was revolutionary at the time – that people with disabilities should have equal rights. Today, ARISE employs around 600 people and offers more than 50 programs. The agency is cross-disability and serves 7,000 individuals each year, including 1,200 individuals through its Mental Health Clinic. The goal of ARISE is to offer individuals with disabilities a platform to advocate and achieve systems change, independence, and choice.

Frequently Asked Question

Who can submit creative work to UNIQUE?

Artists submitting work must be at least eight years old, live in Central New York, and have a disability.

What types of creative pieces does ARISE feature in UNIQUE?

We recognize that art comes in many forms, shapes, and interpretations. We welcome visual work and written work. Past examples of work published in UNIQUE include poems, essays, paintings, drawings, photographs, sculptures, computer-generated art, and mixed-media artwork. All artworks must be framed, sculpture and 3-D artwork must come with a sturdy protective covering. This is to protect your original artwork from damage during transport.

Note: Artistic pieces that are not easily moved or displayed in print form (e.g., slideshows, multi-media displays, murals, etc.) will be accepted for consideration at the discretion of the Managing Editor. Please contact ARISE if you have a question.

How many pieces can I submit?

Artists may submit only one original creative piece for consideration.

When is the deadline for submissions?

The deadline for submissions is April 14, 2023.

Can I use an art kit from a craft store?

Art from kits is not allowed. Please send in only original artwork.

Can I feature another artist's work such as a poem or image as a part of my artwork?

All work must be original to the submitting artist. Collaborations are acceptable, however, please list all artists on the submission and consent forms. Collaborators must also fill out submission and consent forms.

Why are we being asked to submit photographs of our work?

Due to space constraints, artists should NOT submit their physical art object. Photographs of the piece are required. Photographs can be printed and mailed to ARISE. Photos can also be emailed (.jpeg, .pdf, .png formats only. They must be at least 6 by 6 inches or 6 by 8 inches) to bpfohl@ariseinc.org. Please contact Bill Pfohl at (315) 671-5438 if you have questions.

When will I get my art back?

All artwork accepted for publication in UNIQUE 2023 will be available for pick up after the close of the UNIQUE Exhibit at the Everson Museum toward the end of September.
